SCENE IN VIENNA DAZES VISITOR

VIENNA: Jan. 5 .- (Correspondence One American business man who has at revisited this city was so surprised the changes that had taken place at the changes that had taken place in the once gav Austrian capital that he declared that "the panorama of misery." he witnessed here, was the greatest shock of his life.

Henry Barna, of St. Paul, Minn., last visited Vieuna ten years ago, when as he said, there was "great fun" here. Now he has returned and spent about two weeks, long enough he says to two weeks, long enough, he says, to know what he is talking about. "I never dreamed," said Mr. Barna to an American Red Cross representative here. That Vienna would show such tragic effects of the war. I have been in nearly every capital of Europe since t he armistice, but nowhere have I seen such wholesale misery. Everything is out of joint. Everything is uncertain. Food is scarce: and fuel still more difficult to obtain. I don't suppose anyone can be happy in a sea of misery like this.

"Why," he went on, "there isn't a smile, much less a laugh in that crowd," referring to the people passing the hotel in the Ringstrasse. "They the hotel in the Ringstrasse. They m so sad and dull-eved, these Ven-
